

Broad Universe

Broad Universe is an organization with the primary goal of celebrating and promoting science fiction, fantasy, and horror written by women. Anyone excited about that project is welcome to join us. We plan to help authors promote their books and let the world know that a lot of great stuff in the genre is being written by women.

Our website – www.broaduniverse.org – has statistics, information about events, an online books-in-print catalog, and The Broadsheet, a newsletter with book reviews and self-promotion tips.

Everyone can be broad-minded: men, women, writers, artists, editors, librarians, booksellers, publishers, reviewers, and fans.

Here's how you can help us:

- ✦ Become a member! We have two levels of membership and benefits; join online with PayPal at our website or print out the form and mail it in.
- ✦ Send us information for our online catalog. We don't sell from the site, but we'll advertise members' work. Ideally, titles should still be in print, but recognizing that online used bookstores are convenient, we will accept out-of-print titles, too.
- ✦ We're putting together a database of bookstore addresses to offer our authors for their own publicity purposes. Send us addresses of 3 bookstores in your area that are friendly to SF/F.
- ✦ Send us the names and addresses of female-friendly SF/F reviewers. We already know about LOCUS, SF Chronicle, and the NY Review of Books – tell us about female-friendly SF/F reviewers at your local newspaper or a woman who's the SF/F book club manager at your local bookstore.

We hope to staff tables at bookseller conventions, meet bookstore owners and librarians, and have a catalog of our members' books in print to advertise our work.

You can talk with other broad-minded folks on the Broad Universe email discussion group: <http://groups.yahoo.com/subscribe/broaduniverse> or send email to broaduniverse-subscribe@yahoogroups.com
